

VAT payments – Change of HMRC bank account details – Effective 8 July 2009

HMRC have changed their bank account details for the receipt of electronic payments. Full details are available via this link.

Businesses which pay VAT electronically should change their details immediately. (HMRC will continue to operate the old account for a short period so if there will be a delay in updating payment details or if you have already made a payment to the old account since 8 July this will still have been received by them).
